Dear Friend of EWTN

On July 16, 1251, in Aylesford, Kent, Our Lady of Carmel visited her faithful servant, the Carmelite monk Simon Stock, and granted him a gift. The Muslims had recently expelled the Carmelites from the Holy Land, and St Simon had fervently prayed to Our Lady for assistance. She then appeared to him holding in her hands a brown scapular and said to him: "It must be a sign and a privilege for you and for all Carmelites: Whoever dies wearing the scapular will not suffer eternal fire."

In time, the Church extended this privilege to all the faithful and attached some conditions to it: the scapular must be invested by a priest, it must be worn at all times, the person who wears it must observe chastity according to their state in life, say the daily rosary, and observe all the fasts of the Church.

Later, the Blessed Virgin Mary promised Pope John XXII in a vision that she will deliver from purgatory soon after their passing, notably the first Saturday after death, all her faithful children who have worn the brown scapular devoutly: "As a tender mother, I will descend into purgatory on the Saturday after their death and will deliver them into the heavenly mansions of life everlasting."

If you do not yet wear a brown scapular, the Feast of Our Lady of Carmel, on July 16, is a great time to start. You can get the brown scapular from most catholic religious shops in your area or online.

Thank you for your continued financial and spiritual support. It is very much needed at the present time!

In Christ, Our Lord,

Aidan Gallagher

PASS on the FAITH – REMEMBER US in YOUR WILL

HOW YOU CAN HELP EWTN

If you are making or considering your Will and wish to leave us a fixed cash sum, or perhaps a proportion of the “residue of your estate” to help EWTN, then the appropriate form of words below will help. We recommend you seek advice from a solicitor when drawing up your Will.

“I give free of inheritance tax _____ [complete with one of the options in bold below] to EWTN Ireland, a registered Charity in Ireland No. 15025, (“the Charity”) for its charitable purposes and I direct that the receipt of the person professing to be the treasurer or other proper officer of the Charity shall be a full discharge for the said Legacy”.

A. The sum of Euro € _____ or Sterling £ _____

[please insert the amount you wish to give]

B. _____ percentage share of my estate.

C. A specific item you wish to give: _____

If you have already made your Will but would like to change it to leave a share of the residue of your estate to EWTN Ireland, perhaps you might consider making a new Will. However, if you have already make your Will but would like to leave a fixed sum, you can add a Codicil using the following wording.

“I [name] of [address] declare this to be the [First, Second, Third, etc.] Codicil to my Will dated and made the _____ day of _____ two thousand and _____. I give free of inheritance tax the sum of €/£ _____ to EWTN Ireland, a Registered Charity in Ireland No. 15025 (‘the Charity’) for its charitable purposes and I direct that the receipt of the person professing to be the treasurer or other proper officer of the Charity shall be a full discharge for the said Legacy. In all other respects I confirm my said Will. AS WITNESS my hand this _____ day of _____, 20_____.”

Sign: _____

*Signed by the Testator/Testatrix

Witness (1) Sign _____

Witness (2) Sign _____

*In our presence and then by us in his/hers

Print Name _____ Print Name _____

Address _____ Address _____

Occupation _____ Occupation _____

*Please note that your witnesses cannot be beneficiaries in your Will or be married to anyone who is a beneficiary of your Will. You must sign the Will in front of both witnesses who must both then sign the form in front of you and each other. Your witnesses should then fill in their name, address and occupation as above.

Thank You for Considering Leaving a Legacy to EWTN Ireland
